

Outa the Box

Our thanks to Betty Cate, who has recently been led of the Lord to take care of children's church for the newborns through four-year-olds. She's doing a great job in a vital ministry.

Thanks also for the many weeks of free sign space from Sylvia of Metroplex Sign Co. Bless you.

A special gracias to James Stoddard and his wife, Joanne, for free advertisement for Cowboy Church in their magazine, Rodeo Stars; they've gone out of their way to help. Our deepest condolences to them for the loss of Joanne's son in June.

Another thanks goes to Wallace and Ken Stevens of Rocking S Silversmiths for the absolutely beautiful buckles they made that were presented to Billy Bob, Tex and Hub.

Thanks to Billy Minick for helping set up the Bull Riding Arena in the beginning and for his cooperation in the coliseum at the free rodeo schools that are coming up. Thanks also to Pam Minick for getting the Cowboy Church in the Cowtown Rodeo program and for helping us advertise the rodeo schools through channel eleven and other sources.

Our appreciation to Trina Pelton for helping with the bookkeeping and accounting. And we especially want to thank all the folks at Billy Bob's for their help and friendliness. Bless you all!

Hats off to Dennis McKinley, head of Western World Ministries, for training Cowboy Church members in street witnessing. Dennis has preached at Cowboy Church several times, and his wife, Sheron, works with the youth. Special thanks to you, both.

Last, but not least, we'd like to thank Tex Whitson for all his efforts and heart input into this work. Without him there would have been no Cowboy Church. Many thanks, Tex.

Thanks to all of you who have supported Cowboy Church with your prayers and finances. And forgive us for all of you who were not mentioned. God never forgets!
